THEMATIC GROUP SPEAKING: DON'T MAKE EXCUSES

The act combines four literary pieces including two poems, one prose and one dramatic excerpt. The poem "Why are you late for school" is written by Steven Turner, the prose from "Through the Looking Glass" is written by Lewis Carroll, the play "Romeo and Juliet" is written by William Shakespeare, and the poem "Excuses, excuses" is written by Gareth Owen. All the other additional content is original work written by Dr. Peter LEE.
